Online Voting Begins Today for Child with the “Most Beautiful Eyes”
- For the Month of August, Prevent Blindness America Asks Public to Vote for Winner of the Most Beautiful Eyes Contest -

CHICAGO (Aug. 1, 2012) – The voting period has now begun to determine the finalists for the “Most Beautiful Eyes Contest” from Prevent Blindness America. From now until Aug. 31, the public is invited to go online and vote for their choice of the child with the most beautiful eyes at facebook.com/preventblindness. The public may vote for each entry once a day. The grand prize winner will receive a $10,000 educational scholarship.

At the end of the voting period, the contestant with the most votes from each state, with the exception of Rhode Island, will advance to the final round. All state winners will receive a free pair of Eagle Eyes® Optics Rock-It™ Sunglasses for Kids that includes a kids’ Fisher® Space Pen. The contest is sponsored by Marchon Eyewear, Eagle Eyes® Optics, Real Kids Shades (RKS) and Walters Golf.

The contestant with the most votes from each state will advance to the final round where the overall winner will be determined by a celebrity panel of judges. The celebrity panel includes renowned broadcaster Larry King, host of “Larry King Now” on Ora.tv, “Fox NFL Sunday” Host Curt Menefee and star of stage and screen, Barbara Eden, best known for her leading role in the television classic, “I Dream of Jeannie.”

“We want to wish good luck to all of participants and encourage them to get the word out to all of their friends and family to vote for their child for a chance to win a fantastic prize- a $10,000 educational scholarship,” said Hugh R. Parry, president and CEO of Prevent Blindness America. “We’d also like to thank our contest sponsors for helping us use this program as a tool to remind parents on the importance of healthy eyesight for children.”

The national winner and two family members will enjoy a weekend in Chicago to attend the Prevent Blindness America Annual Awards Banquet on Friday, Nov. 2, 2012, where the $10,000 educational scholarship will be officially awarded.
